

ICOLC 2005 Spring, Boston
Plenary 3:
Evolving e-journal issues

April 13, 2005

- Evolving “e-journal” issues:
  - NIH front ( centralized archiving, tax payer argument, NIH’s interests historically, and transformation of SPARC, what next?)
  - UK front ( Government’s response, JISC funding, etc)
  - Berlin front ( Berlin3@Southampton, Policy registration, usual list flames, Berlin4 just after Poznan)
  - The REST of the world( Asia/Pacific, Africa, So America, scholarly societies, national journals, etc)
  - Publishers’ OA “experiment” ( Springer, Blackwell, OUP, etc)

- Evolving “e-journal” issues(cont’d)
  - Preservation ( LOCKSS, KB, ACS, major publishers, “moving wall,” one-time payment, etc)
  - Management, cataloging etc, which has been supposedly covered
  - Search engines, navigation tools, portal, metadata, etc, which also have been being discussed, maybe
  - Statistics ( COUNTER, raw log data)
  - Self-archiving
  - Institutional repositories ( Why? Who? How?, UK way/US ways/other ways)

- Evolving “e-journal” issues(cont’d, again)
  - Author’s rights to scholarly achievement( as oppesed to tax payers?)
  - Library and faculty/researchers
  - University/academic libraries and public/hospital libraries(Canada, UK/NHS, etc)
  - Overall cost saving ( ILL, buildings, facilities, etc)
  - User instruction
  - Yet another, and yet yet another pricing models
  - Future of library consortia
- What else?
